

Boy Scout Troop 457

Scout Release Form

Scout Name _____

At the end of Troop Meetings and other Troop activities, adult leaders will ensure that all Scouts go home with their parent or guardian, or with another parent or guardian of a Troop member. At the end of each campout, adult leaders make sure that every Scout and his equipment have a ride home and that the Scout is delivered into the care of a parent, guardian or other adult who is acknowledged by the Scout and/or his family to be an acceptable care giver for the Scout.

Some Scout families wish to designate one or more persons to whom a Scout should not be released. Following is a list of the individuals to whom the above-named Scout should not be released:
